Agenda

Customer data is everywhere

Customer touchpoints – Retail example

Customer expectations are growing of consumers are more likely to shop with brands who recognize, remember, and provide relevant offers and recommendations. ¹

of buyers want brands to get to know them and understand when to approach them and when not to. ²

¹ Accenture
² Accenture

Today's experiences are falling short of consumers are frustrated by inconsistent experiences across channels. ¹ of customers are frustrated by the irrelevant content they are exposed to on websites. Up to 40% of them will leave. ² of customers stopped doing business with at least one company last year because of poor customer experience. ³

Managing customer data – not a new challenge, but increasingly more difficult

Disconnected customer data

Only
13%

Of organizations claim a high degree of making the most of available customer data

Inability to unify data

63%

Of organizations stated the top obstacle to using customer data is the inability to unify it

Lack means to extract data

47%

Of respondents cited inability to extract data from source systems as a key challenge

Key challenges

Customer data and systems are fragmented

Multiple “criteria for –” and “approaches to –” personalization

Data privacy laws and protection of customer data are critical

Lack scalable solutions for large volumes of customer data

Close the gap
by activating
data to gain insights

Trusted platform with unmatched security and privacy

Customer Data Platform

What are the specifics?

- Centralized and unified customer profile from combined data sources
- No anonymous data
- Packaged Software
- Actionable data

Customer Data Platform

What is it not?

- Not a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system
- Not a Data Management Platform (DMP)
- Not an (Enterprise) Data Warehouse (DWH), analytics or visualization tool
- Not a personalization tool

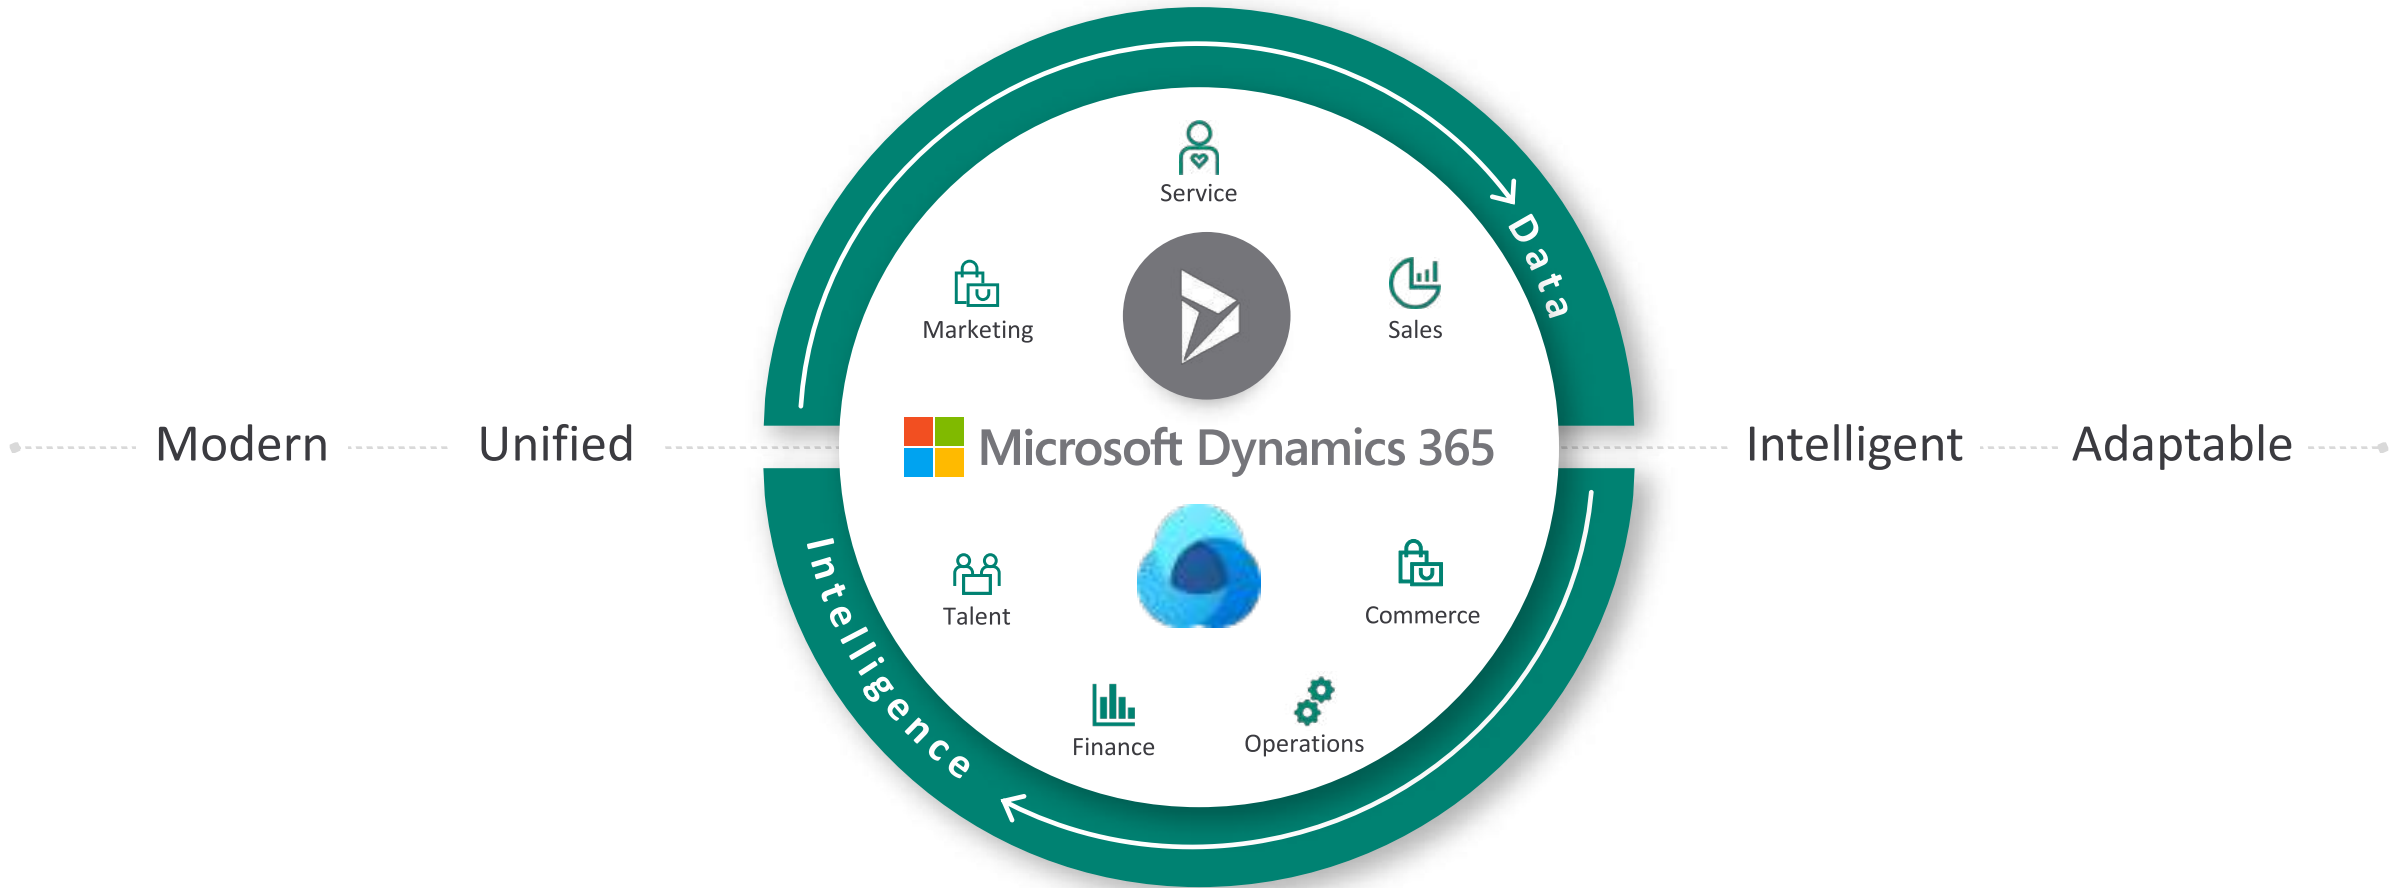

Dynamics 365 Customer Insights

Mission & Vision
